Star Indian paddler G Sathiyam on Wednesday notched up a dominating 4-0 win over Yevhen Pryshchepa of Ukraine in the summit clash to claim the men's singles title at the ITTF Czech International Open.

Earlier, Sathiyam had advanced to the final after his Swedish opponent Truls Moregardh retired hurt midway through the semi-final here.

The top seeded Indian had won the first two games without breaking a sweat 11-4 11-8 and was leading the third 8-2 when Moregardh opted against continuing the competition, citing an injury in the semifinal clash.

Serena pulls out of US Open

Washington

Serena Williams added herself to the list of big-name withdrawals from the US Open on Wednesday, pulling out of the year's last Grand Slam tournament because of a torn hamstring.

Williams hasn't competed since injuring her right leg in the first set of her first-round match at Wimbledon in late June.

The American, who turns 40 next month, announced her decision to sit out the U.S. Open via a social media post. She joins Roger Federer and Rafael Nadal in sitting out the competition in Flushing Meadows, where play begins next Monday, raising questions about what the future of tennis might look like without them.

The draw for the tournament is Thursday.

This will be the first major tournament since 1997 without any of Williams, Federer or Nadal in the singles brackets. Williams made her Grand Slam debut at the 1998 Australian Open; Federer made his the following year; Nadal in 2003.

Williams has won 23 Grand Slam singles titles, a record in the professional era. Only one player in tennis history owns more, Margaret Court with 24.

Federer, Nadal and Novak Djokovic share the men's record of 20.

Japan were runners-up in 2019 and are seeking their first Sudirman Cup title.

and Canada, while Group B consists of Chinese Taipei, Korea, Tahiti and Germany.

The 21-year-old has put pen to paper on a long-term contract after passing medical and agreeing personal terms. Nongdomba moves to Goa after two seasons with Kerala Blasters - the first of which he spent out on loan with Mohun Bagan, helping them to the I-League title in 2020 alongside fellow Gaur Alexander Romario Jesuraj. That season saw him bag 2 goals and 5 assists in 16 games for the Mariners. Last season saw him play 3 games in the ISL in the colours of Kerala before an unfortunate injury brought down the curtains to his campaign earlier than expected.

Wrestler Ravi Dahiya to miss World Championship

NEW DELHI: Olympic silver medallist Ravi Dahiya says he has decided to give the upcoming wrestling World Championship a miss since he did not get time to prepare for the selection trials that WFI is organising next week to pick the Indian team for the prestigious tournament. The Wrestling Federation of India (WFI) will conduct trials on Tuesday for the Worlds, set to be held in Oslo, Norway from October 2-10. Dahiya and other Tokyo Games medal winners have been hopping from one state to another for the numerous felicitation functions being organised in their honour. "I don't want to be on the mat unprepared. What's the point in competing without enough practice. So I have to miss the World Championship because I don't want to go to the trials without enough practice," the soft-spoken Dahiya said.

Johannesburg

South African cricket team assistant coach Enoch Nkwe, who had informed about his intention to resign, has officially quit the position, the country's cricket board has confirmed.

Cricketer South Africa (CSA) said that the former cricketer had raised matters related to national team's culture.

"Cricket South Africa (CSA) regrets to announce the decision by Enoch Nkwe to leave his position as Assistant Coach of the Proteas men's team, a position he held since December 2019.

Enoch was also briefly the Team Director," said Cricket South Africa in a statement.

CSA engaged with Enoch to explore whether there was a way to retain his services but this was unsuccessful. During the discussions, CSA said he had raised concerns about the functioning and culture of the team environment.

"The Board will be taking the necessary steps to investigate and address the issues raised by Enoch. We will not be commenting further on this until the process has been completed," added CSA.

A report in espncricinfo.com said that Nkwe had differences with head coach Mark Boucher and the matters that he raised with CSA do not relate to racism. The report added that Nkwe also wanted more of a role on the technical side and less time in training sessions.
