India, 21 other nations protest against 'carbon colonisation'

'Make Climate Goals Collective Responsibility'

VishwaMohan | TNN

Glasgow: With the COP26 heading for the final day without taking any definite call on key issues including climate finance and market-based mechanism for carbon reduction (carbon market), a climate negotiation group of 22 called 'Like Minded Developing Countries on Thursday called the conference presidency not to adopt "mitigation-centric approach" by keeping 1.50 Celsius goal alive as a "collective responsibiligow decision text, and requested him to "completely remove paragraph on mitigation" in the revised text.

The paragraph on mitigation in the text, which is to be finalised only after consensus,

BROAD STICKING POINTS

O CLIMATE FINANCE, LOSS & DAMAGE AND ADAPTATION FINANCE

Climate finance has long been a major issue negotiating countries as the affluent nations failed to deliver on their promise to mobilise $100bn per year by 2020

> There have been strong calls from India and other developing countries for this amount to be increased

 Developing countries call for the entire amount to be in the form of grants that are split 50-50 for adaptation

> Private finance, investment and loans should not be counted as climate finance under $100 billion per year promise

and mitigation

> How 'loss and damage' due to climate change should be compensated for have

No clarity on formulation of a global goal of adaptation which includes a roadmap to mobilise financial flows catering to adaptation also remained unresolved

6) COMMON TIMEFRAMES FOR NDCS

> Common timeframe for operationalisation of national commitments under the Paris

Agreement has not yet been finalised As a result, there is also no clarity on the timelines that will be adopted for the implementation of

No clarity on how long it will take to meet commitments (some committed till 2025 while others opted for 2030 timelines) includes language on collectively trying to limit global warming to 1.50 C above the pre-industrial (1850-1900) level, as opposed to the target under put 20 C as upper limit while keeping 1.50 Cas merely an aspirational goal

(2) CARBON MARKET (ARTICLE 6)

> Article 6 of the Paris Agreement deals with market-based mechanisms and non-market approaches to emissions

> The pre-2020 regime ran into trouble as carbon credits (CERs), generated through clean development projects, flooded the market while also being counted in domestic > It leads to double accounting of emissions reductions, resulting in

> No consensus whether and how past CERs will be carried forward 1 TRANSPARENCY FRAMEWORKS

> Developing countries say the transparency progress on support and capacity building mechanism can be finalised only after collapse of the market structure

> No consensus on creation of mechanisms which will enhance transparency in the implementation of the Paris > Developed countries link it with other key areas of negotiations like finance and technology transfer

Accused forged NOC to get ₹7.9 cr compensation

ecently, the ED collected documents related to the Pune police case and subsequently registered the money laundering case.

Early on Thursday, ED officials formed seven teams, and they raided the premises of the six accused, who were believed to have acted on the instructions of someone else. The ED has recorded the statement of five of the accused persons and accordingly will decide the next course of action in the case, sources said. Sources stated that "the six persons are from the lower strata of life and not capable of committing the crime of such a magnitude, to cheat the government. One of the six accused is on the run."

According to the case, the Tabut Inam Endowment Trust, registered with the Wakf Board, owned a piece of land at Maan Village, Mulshi taluka, in Pune district. quired the land for the Rajiv Gandhi IT Park and announced Rs 8.76 crore as compensation to the land owner. ers of the trust.

I am not scared of ED, says Malik

CP's Nawab Malik, the state minority affairs minister under whom the Wagf Board comes, said in response to reports of ED raids in Pune that the probe agency had not raided any Wagf Board offices anywhere in the state but offices of a trust involved in illegally procuring Waqf land in Pune, TNN

The accused, reportedly in connivance with some other persons, represented themselves as office-bearers of the Tabut Inam Endowment Trust and forged a Wakf Board NOC to get Rs 7.9 crore compensation released by the government.

The accused were exposed after the trust complained to the Wakf Board that it did not receive compensation from the state government in lieu of its land. During further in quiry, it was disclosed that six persons in all had represented themselves as office-bear-

TIMES NEWS NETWORK

Kochi: The Kerala High Court on Thursday directed to make the Enforcement Directorate (ED) a party in the case against Monson Mavunkal and others involved in the fake antiques scam. Justice Devan Ramachandran said prima facie there is more than what meets the eye in the case and the court would not allow a cover-up.

Considering a report detailing the investigation conducted so far, the judge said the state police chief himself has informed the court that Monson is a dubious antiques dealer and was travelling abroad all the time. He criticized former state police chief Loknath Behera for not stopping Monson from going abroad despite suspecting the genuineness of "antiques" on display at Monson's house in 2019. As directed by the court, state police chief Anil Kant had filed a report stating that Behera and ADGP Manoj Abraham had visited Monson's house in May 2019 and Behera had directe creet enquiry then itself after the ADGP raised suspicions about the genuineness of the antiques
